

Eastgate on the Road, Workshop and Bite Sized Performance

Saturday 8 June 2019, Skirling Village Hall

Eastgate on the Road is a series of seven combined workshop/performances being presented by the Eastgate Theatre, Peebles in partnership with community organisations. It is funded by Creative Scotland.

Skirling's singers and performers (aged 12-18) are invited to enrol in a workshop with the dynamic composer, singer, director (and founder of Scotland's first juggling choir) Moira Morrison for Eastgate on the Road's Workshop on Saturday 8th June.

Outline Timings

- 9.30am Participants will choose two songs from the scores of the musicals Matilda, Bohemian Rhapsody and The Greatest Showman to learn and then perform in the afternoon.
- 12pm Skirling residents are invited to watch the workshop participants perform their two chosen songs, followed by...
Light lunch of soup and a sandwich with a chance to meet and mingle before the introduction of the stunning...
- 1pm Story-telling clarsach player and singer, Heather Yule (click here)
- 1.45pm The Bite Sized Workshop is rounded off with coffee and cake!

How to Enrol/Book Tickets

To enrol for the workshop, please contact Katy Miller on 860 252, km140@live.com.

For tickets to enjoy the afternoon of entertainment, please click here to book via the theatre website: <https://etac.tickets.red61.com/performances.php?eventId=5013:2161>.