Community Policing News – PS Crawford Laing

As we fast approach the festive season, I just wanted to take the opportunity to encourage everyone to enjoy yourselves but not to let your guard down. Criminals operate all year round and at this time of year with darker evenings it can often make it easier for opportunist thieves to target us.

- Ensure security lights and intruder alarms are working if in place and consider having these installed if not.
- Don't allow deliveries to be left on doorsteps when not home as these are an easy target and give a good indication that nobody is home.
- Leave lights on in the evening when not at home
- Ensure tools and ladders are secure as these can assist opportunist thieves.
- Store car keys somewhere safe and out of sight.
- Review how secure your home is. Take 10 minutes to walk around your own property and consider how you would get in if you were locked out.

Tackling Serious and Organised Crime

Serious and organised crime enforcement – November 2025

The Scottish Borders CID Proactive Unit executed 3 Drug & General Evidence Warrants during the month of October within the towns of Hawick, Jedburgh and Peebles as well as positive stop and searches in Hawick and Melrose. These resulted in the seizures of quantities of Class A/B controlled drugs and 4 figures sums of cash as well as a large cannabis cultivation. Five people were reported for drug related offences including proceeds of crime during the month.

Serious and organised crime impacts local communities across the Borders and anyone with information on criminal activity are asked to contact Police Scotland on 101, report it at any Police Station or report it anonymously via the Crime Stoppers Charity.

This information can be on any criminal matter but includes an individuals unexplained financial gain or wealth or persons who are vulnerable in our communities and being targeted or exploited by others for any reason.

Campaigns

With Christmas not far off, Police Scotland are focussing on online safety in the run up to the festive period:

Online Safety encourages people to think about what they are posting on social networking sites and to make sure their web browser and internet security is up to date.

Shop Safely by keeping presents out of sight in cars and being careful when using cash machines.

Party Safely messages include planning ahead for nights out, sticking with friends and being sensible about how much alcohol is consumed.

OFFICIAL

Anyone with information relating to any criminal activity can contact Police Scotland by dialling 101 or alternatively anonymously by calling CRIMESTOPPERS on 0800 555111.
